DEATH OF MRS. J. E. DICKSON

Mrs. Elizabeth Anne Dickson, 76, died at her home in Collins at an early hour Saturday, Dec. 27, from heart failure following a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Dickson had been in failing health for some time and her death was not unexpected, although the shock and sadness occasioned by her passing was none the less great.

Funeral services were held from the Collins Methodist church at 11 a. m. Monday with the Rev. John Adamson in charge. Burial was made in Collins Evergreen cemetery by the side of her husband, a Civil war veteran, who died in 1925.

We hope to publish the complete obituary in next week's issue.

OBITUARY

Elizabeth Ann Carver, second daughter of Jabez and Ellen Jackson Carver, was born in Wyoming county, Iowa, November 15, 1854, and passed away at her home in Collins, December 26, 1930, aged 76 years, 1 month and 11 days.

The family moved to Rock county, Wisconsin, when she was seven years old, and lived there for nine years. They later moved to De Kalb county, Illinois, then came to Iowa in the fall of 1875.

She was united in marriage November 15, 1876 to Joseph Earl Dickson in Nevada. Of this union four children were born, Mrs. Ruth Stanton of Collins, Mrs. Iva Inman of Collins, Alfred Benjamin Dickson, who died at the age of 19 years, and a baby daughter who died in infancy.

She is survived by four brothers, John Carver of Fergus Falls, Minn.; Ira Carver of Oakes, N. D., Ben Carver of Collins, and Ed Carver of Collins. Also four sisters, Florence Carver of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Mary Garret, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Minnette Teeter, Marshalltown, Ia.; Mrs. Ada Hughes of Webster City, Ia. Two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Stanton and Mrs. Iva Inman, both of Collins. Five grandchildren, Wallace Inman, Lydia Inman, Ada Inman of Collins; Joe Stanton of Des Moines and Truman Stanton of Center Junction. Also two great grandchildren, John Joseph Stanton and Sarah Elizabeth Stanton, both of Center Junction.

Many years ago she joined the M. E. church and maintained her membership until her death.

She was truly a woman of sterling worth and integrity; a pioneer whose home was her first consideration and many friends and neighbors can testify to loving service done in stress of sickness or other need.

Her grandchildren were a source of great interest and pleasure to her and she was never so happy as when she could be a help or inspiration to them.

A woman whose children will "rise up and call her blessed."
