MRS. FRED GRAEF

DIED SUNDAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Graef, 67, widow of the late Fred Graef, a former Collins and Maxwell merchant, died at her home in Des Moines Sunday from a heart attack.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dodd, residents of the Clyde neighborhood south of Collins. After her marriage to Mr. Graef they made their home in Collins and Maxwell until about 25 years ago, when they moved to Des Moines, where Mr. Graef died.

Two children survive: a son, Hugh Graef of Waterloo, and the daughter, Mrs. Maud Coon, who lived with her mother. There are also four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Carl White Funeral home in Des Moines Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. and burial was in Des Moines by the side of the husband.
