Obituary

Lester Dunahoo was born in Lorimar on Sept. 30, 1914 to Elmer and Jennie (Corvan) Dunahoo. At the age of five, he moved to a farm near Maxwell, where he lived for 80 years. He was united in marriage with Marion McCartney in 1936. He was a lifetime farmer and worked at John Deere-Des Moines Works in Ankeny for 20 years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a 50-year member of the Masonic Lodge.

He was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; a sister, Mabel Thomas; two brothers, Ray Dunahoo and Ruthford Dunahoo; and a daughter, Marilyn Malstrom.

Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, Sheryl and Larry Scott of Omaha, Neb.; a son-in-law, Don Malstrom of Palm Springs, Calif.; four granddaughters; five great-grandchildren; a niece; and two nephews.

The family suggests memorials to the Maxwell Presbyterian Church or the Maxwell Community Center.

The Cremation Society of Iowa is in charge of the arrangements.
