

EARLES, Elmo Wood

d. 7-24-1996

Elmo Wood Earles

April 4, 1920-July 24, 1996

Elmo Wood Earles, 76, of Collins, died Wednesday of renal failure at his home. Graveside memorial services and burial of the cremains will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the Evergreen Cemetery in Collins, with the Rev. Norbert Deer officiating.

Elmo Wood Earles was born in Harris, Mo., the son of John and Sophronia (Collins) Earles. He married Jenny Osborn who preceded him in death in 1966. On Dec. 31, 1966, he married Helen (Wood) Raines in Maxwell. Mr. Earles lived in Collins for 34 years and was the manager of Skelgas in Collins for many years.

Mr. Earles is survived by his wife; four daughters, Connie Smith of Scio, Ore., Carol Barrett of Maxwell, Dianna Stokesbary of Rhodes and Sheila Cantrell of Milner, Ga.; four sons, Bob Earles of Nevada, Mike Smith, Bob Raines and Russ Raines, all of Collins; 22 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, six brothers, two sisters, and two sons.

A memorial has been established in his name.

Chet-Ryan Mortuary in Nevada is handling arrangements.

Elmo Wood Earles

April 4, 1920-July 24, 1996

Elmo Wood Earles, 76, of Collins, died Wednesday of renal failure at his home. Graveside memorial services and burial of the cremains will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the Evergreen Cemetery in Collins, with the Rev. Norbert Deer officiating.

Elmo Wood Earles was born in Harris, Mo., the son of John and Sophronia (Collins) Earles. He married Jenny Osborn who preceded him in death in 1966. On Dec. 31, 1966, he married Helen (Wood) Raines in Maxwell. Mr. Earles lived in Collins for 34 years and was the manager of Skelgas in Collins for many years.

Mr. Earles is survived by his wife; four daughters, Connie Smith of Scio, Ore., Carol Barrett of Maxwell, Dianna Stokesbary of Rhodes and Sheila Cantrell of Milner, Ga.; four sons, Bob Earles of Nevada, Mike Smith, Bob Raines and Russ Raines, all of Collins; 22 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, six brothers, two sisters, and two sons.

A memorial has been established in his name.

Chet-Ryan Mortuary in Nevada is handling arrangements.

Tribune

7-26-1996

Ames

Tribune

7-26-1996