

Final Rites For Mrs. D. S. Huntrods Held Sunday

1945

Collins, June 16—Funeral services were held at the Collins United Brethren church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for Mrs. D. S. Huntrods, who passed away Friday morning at the Lutheran hospital in Des Moines after a lingering illness. A short service was held at the home at 2:00 o'clock, preceding the church services, which were in charge of the Rev. Paul Varce, pastor of the United Brethren Church.

Scripture read was the twenty-third Psalm, which at her request had been read to her with such a comforting effect on the day preceding her passing.

Music was furnished by Mrs. K. W. Tomlinson and Mrs. Ivan Mullan, who sang "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," "Near To The Heart of God," and "All The Way My Savior Leads Me". Mrs. C. R. Stone was the pianist.

The floral offerings were arranged and cared for by Mrs. Anna Moses and Mrs. Ardell Baker. Pallbearers were Grainger Buck, Bradford Stevens, Meyer Brekke, Arley Wolf, Claude Shickelle and Ray Evans. Interment was in Collins Evergreen Cemetery.

Ushers at the church were Gene Fertig and Benny Caulkins.

Vera Estella Eatwell was born Nov. 6, 1894, the daughter of George and Margaret Eatwell, near Farrar, and departed this life June 8, 1945, at the age of 50 years, 7 months and 2 days. She spent her girlhood days in that community. Her high school education was obtained in the schools of Collins and Newton and later she attended Highland Park College. She taught for several years in the schools of Jasper County.

On March 3, 1945, she was united in marriage with Donald Simpson Huntrods of Collins. To this union nine children were born, all of whom were able to be near her to comfort her in her last illness. Most of this happy married life was spent in the vicinity of Collins.

Surviving are her husband, D. S. Huntrods, the children, Donna Ose and Margaret Struthers of Collins, Myrl Lauffer of Marshalltown, Lucile White of Rhodes, Iris Clark of Yuma, Ariz., and William, Roger, Donald and Mary Lee at home, and four grandchildren, Marilyn and Patty White, and Lois and Donald Lee Struthers.

She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Powleske, five brothers and sisters and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Huntrods was always interested in doing her part to make the community a better place for her children to live in by helping with church and school activities before ill health forced her to quit.

When a young girl she was united with the Church of Christ in Newton, later moving her membership to Collins. During her life she was a devoted Christian wife and mother who put the welfare of her loved ones above all else.
