

Charles J. Elliott

18 APRIL 1990

Funeral services were Friday for Charles J. Elliott, 68, of Rhodes, who died Wednesday, April 18, at his home following a lengthy illness. The Reverend Beverlee Bell officiated at Rhodes United Methodist Church, and burial followed in the Eden Cemetery in Rhodes. Military services were provided by the Rhodes American Legion.

Bearers were Terry Meimann, Jack Gray, Jerry Dannan, Bob Schultz, Laverne Lass and James Clair.

Honorary bearers were Steven Fallin, Gerald Allen, Michael Draggush, Ed Bailey, Gerald Richeson and Ed Hall.

The Ryan-Davis Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements, and a memorial fund has been established.

He was born March 19, 1922 in Story County, the son of Charles M. and Daisy Whistler Elliott. He was married to Alice Gordon September 12, 1947 in Marshalltown.

Mr. Elliott was reared and educated in Rhodes, where he lived his entire life. A veteran of World War II, he worked for Hopkins Sign Company in Marshalltown before and after his military service. He later worked at the Rhodes school system for 19 years and also for various painting contractors in Marshalltown.

Mr. Elliott was a member of the Rhodes United Methodist Church and the Rhodes American Legion.

He was preceded in death by a brother and two sisters.

He is survived by his wife, Alice, a daughter, Lynn (Mrs. Larry) Lass of Rhodes, three grandchildren, two brothers, Harold Elliott of Madrid and Wilbur Elliott of the Marshall County Care Facility.
