

Enfield, Rosalie F.
d. 6-13-2002

Rosalie F.
Enfield

MARCH 29, 1954-JUNE 13, 2002

Rosalie F. Enfield, 48, of Collins, died Thursday of cancer at Israel Family Hospice House in Ames. Services will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Collins United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Don Carlson officiating. Burial will be in Brethren Cemetery in rural Maxwell.

Rosalie F. Enfield was born March 29, 1954, in Osage, the daughter of Henry and Alfrieda (Pagel) Crooks. She married Calvin Enfield June 18, 1988, in Collins. She graduated from Nevada High School in 1972. She attended Iowa State University. She was an administrative assistant in the engineering department at ISU. She had worked for Iowa Hospital Association for a number of years. She was a member of Collins United Methodist Church. She taught Sunday school.

She is survived by her husband; three sons, Dan Enfield of Tempe, Ariz., and Nicholas Enfield and Andrew Enfield, both of Collins; one daughter, Emily Enfield of Urbandale; her mother of Dows; two brothers, Adrian Crooks of Boone and Randy Crooks of Ames; six sisters, Carolyn Loftaas of Kensett, Glenita Brown of Mason City, Marjorie Tuthill of Kensett, Cynthia Mallette of Boone, Mary Casterton of Mason City and Ramona Parkin of Norwalk.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Visitation with the family present will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday at Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell. A prayer service will be at 8 p.m.

Memorials may be directed to Collins United Methodist Church and/or Israel Family Hospice House.

Ames
Tribune
6-15-2002

Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell is in charge of arrangements.