

Erickson, Curtis Dean d. 10-18-2003

Tri County

Times

10-23-2003

Curtis "Dean" Erickson

March 8, 1934 to Oct. 18, 2003

Curtis "Dean" Erickson, 69, of Maxwell died Saturday, Oct. 18, 2003 at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames.

He was born March 8, 1934 in Cambridge to Erick and Angeline (Sharp) Erickson. He married Harriett Troup on Aug. 27, 1965 in Nevada. He served in the Air Force 1954-1958 and served one year in Korea. He had worked as a union construction worker until 1968 and then for the Chicago Northwestern Railroad until retiring in 1995. He was a member of the Maxwell United Methodist Church and the Maxwell American Legion Post 149. He was a former member of the Brotherhood of Railway Workers. He enjoyed collecting coins and railroad memorabilia, and gardening.

Survivors include his wife, Harriett of Maxwell; two sons, Chris Troup of Center Point and Matthew Erickson of Maxwell; a daughter, Mary Pierce of Colo; two grandchildren, Travis Fields of Colo and Jesse Williams of Center Point; three brothers: Phil Erickson of Nevada, Ed Erickson of Maxwell and Chuck Erickson of Maxwell; and four sisters, Shirley Rutter of Randall, Karen Fry of Des Moines, Sandra McCauley of Mitchellville, and Judy Erickson of Maxwell.

His parents preceded him death.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, Oct. 21 at the Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell with Rev. Don Burket officiating. Interment was in the Peoria Cemetery near Maxwell. The Bacon Funeral Home of Maxwell is in charge of arrangements.

October 23, 2003

Curtis Erickson

March 8, 1934, to Oct. 18, 2003

Curtis "Dean" Erickson, 69, of Maxwell died Saturday, Oct. 18, at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames.

He was born March 8, 1934, in Cambridge to Erick and Angeline (Sharp) Erickson. He married Harriett Troup on Aug. 27, 1965, in Nevada. He served in the Air Force 1954-1958 and served one year in Korea. He had worked as a union construction worker until 1968 and then for the Chicago Northwestern Railroad until retiring in 1995. He was a member of the Maxwell United Methodist Church and the Maxwell American Legion Post 149. He was a former member of the Brotherhood of Railway Workers. He enjoyed collecting coins and railroad memorabilia, and gardening.

Survivors include his wife, Harriett of Maxwell; two sons, Chris Troup of Center Point and Matthew Erickson of Maxwell; a daughter, Mary Pierce of Colo; two grandchildren; three brothers; Phil Erickson of Nevada, Ed Erickson of Maxwell and Chuck Erickson of Maxwell; and four sisters, Shirley Rutter of Randall, Karen Fry of Des Moines, Sandra McCauley of Mitchellville, and Judy Erickson of Maxwell.

His parents preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, Oct. 21, at the Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell with the Rev. Don Burket officiating. Interment was in the Peoria Cemetery near Maxwell. The Bacon Funeral Home of Maxwell handled arrangements.