

Evans, Dora D. J. 1-14-1902

OBITUARY.

Miss Dora Delle Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Evans, was born March 12, 1881, in Story County, and died at her home, January 14, 1902, 3:05 a. m. in Marshalltown, 510 East Woodbury street, aged 20 years, 10 months, and 2 days.

The funeral was held at the Willow Creek church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Beetley of Peoria preached the sermon. The remains were laid to rest in the Day cemetery.

Deceased was a member of the Wesleyan Methodist church, into which communion she was baptized seven years ago.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her father, mother, three brothers, one sister, and a host of relatives and friends, to all of whom our sympathies are given.

CARD OF THANKS

To the friends and neighbors whose sympathy and kindness were so valuable in the sickness and death of our daughter, we wish to give our sincere thanks. MR. AND MRS. J. N. EVANS AND FAMILY.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones went to Marshalltown Tuesday and returned with the remains of their deceased relative, Miss Dora Delle Evans, yesterday morning. Members of deceased's family came with them and the remains was taken to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones, from which place it was taken to the Willow Creek church for the funeral service and thence to the Day cemetery for interment today.
