

KAREN FARLEY

Monona

Karen Belle Farley, 43, of Monona died of carbon monoxide poisoning Friday at home. The death was ruled a suicide. The body was cremated, and memorial services were held Wednesday at Schutte Funeral Home in Postville. Burial of the cremains will be at a later date.

She was born in Kansas City, Mo., and had lived in Des Moines before moving to Monona five years ago. She had worked for CAMCAR in Decorah.

She is survived by her husband, Tony Johanningmeier; two sons, Terrence Thomas of Plymouth, Minn., and Levi Thomas of Des Moines; two sisters, Jacqueline Judge of Ankeny and Rebecca Clark of Des Moines; and a grandchild.
