

IN REMEMBRANCE

Maude Bell (Williams) Farrell, 87, passed away in San Mateo, CA after a long fight with cancer.

Maude was born in State Center on March 5, 1914 to John and Hattie (Richmond) Williams.

She married Milton E. Farrell on July 9, 1937 in Des Moines. They moved to San Francisco where Milt was a pharmacist and amateur musician. Maude worked for Emporium Dept. Store in San Francisco for 13 years.

Surviving is one daughter, Linda Delohrey, who still lives in San Mateo, CA.

Maude often visited in Rhodes over the years. Her last visit was for the Richmond Reunion in 1990.

Our sympathies to her nephew, Larry Ginter, and cousin, Jerry Hale, and the rest of the family.

She was preceded in death by her sisters, Alice Ginter.

(and Margaret Perry.)
