She was united in marriage to George Harrison Holmes at the Presbyterian parsonage in Maxwell on Dec. 1, 1895. They established their home in Collins. To this union one daughter, Mary Ellen, was born, with whom she had made her home since suffering a stroke in June, 1945.

She united with the Presbyterian church in Maxwell when a young girl and placed her membership in the Collins church of Christ in 1900, where she remained a steadfast and true Christian servant until the time of her passing.

She leaves to mourn her sudden passing the daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Kenneth Tomlinson; one granddaughter, Mrs. James a. Moeller of Corpus Christi, Tex.; one sister, Mrs. W. H. The deceased, having lived her entire adult life in this community, will long be remembered as a kind and devoted daughter, sister, wife and mother and a quiet, friendly neighbor and friend who was always ready and willing to do whatever she could to help others.

She will be deeply mourned, not only by those near and dear to her, but by all who knew her.
