

MRS. ETTA FISH

Mrs. Etta Fish, 79, longtime resident of the Collins neighborhood and aunt of Mrs. S. S. Hanson of Nevada, died early Saturday at Iowa sanitarium, where she had been about three weeks for treatment.

Mrs. Fish had been failing in health for the past year or so.

The body was taken to Collins and funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Brouhard funeral home, after which burial was in the Evergreen cemetery at Collins.

The service was in charge of Rev. Ray Thompson of the United Brethren church of Collins.
