

Rhodes Man

Takes Life;

Rites Thursday

2(OR)3 Oct 1955

Graveside rites for Raymond Freland, Rhodes, will be Thursday at 10 a.m. at Ball Cemetery southwest of Rhodes. They will be in charge of the Wensel Funeral Home.

Dr. Harold E. Sauer, Marshall County coroner, said Mr. Freland, 49, shot himself at his home in Rhodes, probably Sunday. He was found Tuesday. A bachelor, he lived alone.

Mr. Freland was born near Rhodes March 1, 1906, son of Simon and Sarah Jones Freland, and spent all his life in the community. He was employed by the Milwaukee railroad.

Surviving are his mother and a sister Mrs. Will Schelker, Custer, and two other sisters, Mrs. Fred Schelker, Albia, and Mrs. Harry Rafferty, Marshalltown.
