

Freeland Infant Died.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Freeland, whose children had the measles followed by whooping cough, lost their youngest child, a girl aged fourteen months, last Thursday. The interment was at the Day Cemetery Saturday. The bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathy of our people in their sorrow. The other sick children are getting better.

Collins

Clipper

4-1903