

Frisbie, Eugene

EUGENE FRISBIE WAS CALLED BY DEATH

Eugene Frisbie, son of Mrs. Bertha Frisbie, of Bellingham, Wash., passed away March 10, after a long illness.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Harlow Hollingsworth funeral home in Bellingham. Services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Wolf. The songs, "In the Garden," "Going Down the Valley," and "God's Tomorrow" were beautifully rendered by Paul Wells. The many floral pieces were evidence of the high esteem in which Gene was held.

Pall bearers were six of his nearest friends: Albert Callahan Darwin Dickerson, of Blaine, Wash.; Dick Wright, Emery Gaylord, Ernie Lindquist, Kenneth Phyet, of Bel-

J. 3-10-1938

He was laid to rest beside his grandfather Frisbie in Bayview cemetery, Bellingham.

Eugene Wesley Frisbie, son of Bertha and Everard Frisbie, was born April 1, 1911, at Montour, Iowa, and departed this life March 10, 1939, aged 27 years, 11 months and 10 days.

Left to mourn his passing are his mother, Mrs. Bertha A. Frisbie of Bellingham; three sisters, Mrs. M. A. Lord of Bellingham, Mrs. F. A. Kelderhouse of Collins and Mrs. L. J. Lindstrom of Storm Lake, Ia.; a grandfather, W. W. Westcott of Collins, and numerous other relatives. His father preceded him in death, June 4, 1932, at Grinnell, Ia.
