

Thursday, November 6, 2008

JOSEPH D. FULLER, 70

Joseph D. Fuller, 70, of Melbourne and formerly of Marshalltown died peacefully, surrounded by his loved ones on Tuesday, October 28, 2008, at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames. After a courageous battle with Multiple Myeloma Cancer since March 2005, he is now in heaven with his Lord and Savior.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Evangelical Free Church in Marshalltown, 3111 S. 6th Street. He was laid to rest in Restland Cemetery in Baxter with military honors conducted by the VFW Harry C. Harter Post 839. Condolences may be sent to www.vogelfuneralhomes.com. Memorial contributions may be directed to the family.

Born Joseph DeNeen Fuller on October 28, 1938, in Bloomfield, Iowa he was the son of Clarence and Mattie (York) Fuller. Joe graduated from Lake Park High School in 1957. He served in the U.S. Army from May 1961 to 1964.

On August 17th, 1961, he was united in marriage to Linda Sabin in Ft. Riley, Kansas. The couple made Marshalltown their home where they both worked at Fisher Controls until retiring in 1999 and 2002 respectively.

Joseph enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and family, especially at Christmas. He also enjoyed Marshalltown Street Rods, Evangelical Free Church, 50's Music, fishing, boating and golfing.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Linda and two sons, Gene (Pam) Fuller of Marshalltown and Mike (Shelly) Fuller of Melbourne; five grandchildren, Stephanie (Rick) Johnson, Matthew Johnson, Brady Fuller, Joshua Fuller and Haley Fuller and three great-grandchildren, Dominic Johnson, Isabella Johnson and Attison Fuller. Also surviving are his brothers and sisters, Chuck (Shirley) Fuller of Spirit Lake, Gari (Betty) Fuller of Ferguson, Charlene (Homer) Pate of Houston, TX, Dee (Hod) Johnson of Beemer, NE, Sue (John) Dunlap of West Des Moines; two sisters-in-law, Leone Jorstad of Hendricks, MN and Gini Mayo of Davenport; mother-in-law, Lorene Sabin of Baxter and a host of many cousins and friends.

In death he rejoined his parents; brothers, Dean and Bob and sister, Karen.

The family would like to send a special thank-you to the Mary Greeley Hospital Staff, Marshalltown Dialysis Center Staff and Dr. Merchant and Dr. Alexander.

VOGEL
FAMILY OF
FUNERAL HOMES