

OBITUARIES

Kevin Fuller, 34

Kevin Fuller, 34, Shawnee, KS, died Tuesday, May 21, 2002 at the St. Luke's Hospital in Overland Park, KS.

Mass of Christian Burial was held Saturday, May 25 at the St. Joseph's Catholic Church in State Center with Fr. Jon Seda, celebrant. Mr. Fuller was laid to rest in the St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery. The Wensel-Perin Funeral Home of State Center was in charge of arrangements.

Born Feb. 7, 1968, Kevin was one of three children born to "Fritz" and Marilyn (Shortley) Fuller. He received his education in the West Marshall and Carrollton, Texas schools. He graduated from Newman Smith High School in Carrollton, Texas in 1986. He later attended WTI (Wyoming Technical Institute) at Cheyenne, Wyoming. At the time of his death, he had been employed with NAPA for the past seven years as assistant sales manager.

He will be fondly remembered for his passionate love of NASCAR and especially Jeff Gordon #24. He enjoyed collecting knives, fishing and was a member of the Catholic faith.

Left to mourn his death are his loving mother Marilyn of Shawnee, KS, his only brother Scott of Overland Park, KS, and his grandma Lucile Shortley of Overland Park, several aunts and uncles and a host of friends.

In death, he has rejoined his father and sister Theresa as well as grandparents.
