Walter Geisler Services Held

Walter Geisler, 76, died at his home in Maxwell Friday morning following a prolonged illness.

Survivors are his wife, Hazel; four sons, Gale of Des Moines, Clifford and Bill, both of Colo, and Francis of Nevada; two daughters Zerelda DeVault of Colo and Mrs. June Wilson of Colo; eleven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Three sisters, Mrs. Rose Jones of Reinbeck, Mrs. Emma Hay of Collins and Mrs. Viola Lozier of Calif., and two brothers, John of Collins and Lew of Ankeny, also survive.

Geisler was born near Maxwell and had farmed in this community his entire life until ill health forced his retirement.

Funeral services were held at 2 PM Sunday in the Maxwell Methodist Church with Rev. Dale Ellsworth officiating.

Don Myers accompanied by Elaine Mohr at the organ furnished the music.

The floral arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Rhoda Brown, Mrs. Lois Aldrich and Mrs. Eva Link, Casket bearers were Rick Geisler, Larry Geisler, Robert Mindham, Danny Geisler, Kenneth Geisler & Douglas DeVault.
