

In Memory of

LAWRENCE E. GINTER SR.

Born January 24, 1904
Near Rhodes, Iowa

Died March 9, 1965
Marshalltown, Iowa

Requiem High Mass

Celebrated By

Father Frank Heimerman

March 12, 1965
10:00 A. M.

St. Joseph's Catholic Church
Rhodes, Iowa

Casket Bearers

Lawrence Guckert
Bill Blink
Leo Malloy
Clarence Lang
Arnold Klass
Darrell Goodman

Interment

St. Joseph's Cemetery
Rhodes, Iowa

Died Mar 9-65
Lawrence Ginter

→ Early
Dies Tuesday;

Services Friday

RHODES — Lawrence Ginter Sr., a lifelong resident of this area, died Tuesday morning at Mercy Hospital in Marshalltown where he had been a patient since Feb. 28. He had undergone surgery and was thought to be making satisfactory recovery.

HE WAS born south of here Jan. 24, 1904, son of Charles and Elizabeth Halter Ginter, and was graduated from Rhodes High School in 1922. He later was graduated from Cedar Rapids Business School.

On June 3, 1936 he was married to Alice Williams in State Center and she survives ~~with Charles J. of Marshalltown, Dolores Marie of Cedar Rapids and Larry, who recently returned after two years of army service in Germany.~~

Also surviving are three grandchildren, four sisters, Mrs. George Heaney of Altadena, Calif.; Mrs. Walter Yates of Rockford, Ill., Mrs. Glenn Pike of Boone and Mrs. Evelyn Ginter of Grundy Center.

His parents, two brothers, two sisters and a grandchild preceded him in death.

MR. GINTER had been a farmer and had resided on the home place since 1910.

He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Rhodes where Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Friday with burial in St. Joseph's Cemetery. A public Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Ryan-Davis Funeral Home in Melbourne where friends may call.