

Clarence S. Goodman

19 APRIL 1990

Funeral mass was last Saturday for Clarence S. Goodman, 78, of Marshalltown, who died Thursday morning, April 19. The Reverend Thomas Braak officiated at St. Henry's Catholic Church, and burial followed in the Immaculate Conception Cemetery at Haverhill.

A Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus rosary and a scripture vigil were held at the Estel-Perrin-Avey Funeral Home. Memorials may be directed to Iowa River Hospice.

Born October 20, 1911 at Rhodes, he was the son of Charles and Anna Westendorf Goodman. Mr. Goodman moved from Rhodes to Haverhill in 1933 and was married to Iva Marie Dodd March 2, 1933 in State Center, and she preceded him in death. On February 19, 1960 at Gary, IN, he was married to Helen Calahan and they made their home in Marshalltown.

Mr. Goodman was a widely known Central Iowa farmer and cattle feeder, retiring in 1977. He was a member of St. Henry's Catholic Church, an original board member of the Tama Livestock Auction, a member of the Moose Lodge and a Fourth Degree member of the Knights of Columbus.

Preceding him in death besides his first wife was a son, seven brothers and five sisters.

Surviving is his wife, Helen, a son and two daughters, Donald C. Goodman of Haverhill, Janet M. Valastak of Boulder, CO, and Susan A. Wyman of Denver, CO, 26 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, a step-son, Phillip Goodman of Plano, TX, three stepdaughters, Angela Frye, Marilyn Naughton and Laurie Yeutter, all of Marshalltown, and a brother, Earl Goodman of Marshalltown.