

LOOKING BACK

BY SHIRLEY SCHAPER

Delos E. Goodman, prominent businessman, passes Sunday April 17, 1969 State Center Enterprise

Funeral services will be held this morning, Thursday, for Delos E. Goodman, 52, State Center, who died at Mercy Hospital, Marshalltown, Sunday evening.

A Con-celebrated Requiem High Mass will be at 11 a.m. from St. Joseph's Catholic Church, State Center, with burial in St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery. The Mass will be celebrated by Father Matthew Beelner, Father Francis Heimerman, Father Gerald Steiert and Father Louis McDonough.

Mr. Goodman was born in State Center Oct. 14, 1916 the son of Elmer H. and Laura (Mead) Goodman. He attended school in State Center, graduating from State Center High School in 1934 and Creighton University, Omaha, Neb. in 1938.

On May 20, 1939 he married Madonna Wiggins in Omaha. He has been associated with Goodman Milling for the past 31 years.

Mr. Goodman was a member of the Marshalltown Council of the Knights of Columbus, the State Center Lions Club, the State Center Businessmen's Association and St. Joseph's Catholic Church, State Center. He was active in the community and served on the State Center School Board for nine years.