Mrs. Baie Dies At 81

Mrs. Lucille K. Baie, 81, formerly of Rhodes but more recently of the Grandview Heights nursing center, died at Marshalltown Area Community Hospital Wednesday morning.

Born Feb. 4, 1903, at Rhodes, she was the daughter of Charles and Anna Westendorf Goodman. She received her education in the Rhodes schools.

On Sept. 27, 1921, she was married to Leo A. Baie and they had always made their home in Rhodes, where Mrs. Baie was a cook in the Rhodes and West Marshall schools until retirement.

Preceding her in death were her husband, four brothers and three sisters.

Surviving are a son and a daughter, Leland Baie of Des Moines and Irene (Mrs. Robert) Banzhaf of Marshalltown, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Also surviving are three brothers, Clarence Goodman and Earl Goodman of Marshalltown and Urban Goodman of Rhodes.

Mass will be at 10 a.m. Friday at St. Mary's Catholic Church with Father John Hargrafen officiating. A public Rosary will be held at 7:30 p.m. this Thursday at the Estel-Perrin-Avey Chapel. Burial will be in the St. Joseph's Cemetery at Rhodes.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 p.m. this Thursday.
