Forrest D. Granger

Aug. 9, 1914, to March 3, 1991

Forrest D. Granger, 76, of Collins died of cancer at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

He was born in Colo to Henry and Bessie (Dolph) Granger. He lived in Story and Marshall counties his entire life. He was married on Dec. 14, 1940, to Roberta Sink at Rhodes. He was a prominent farmer in the Collins area and a long-time air pilot. He was a member of Collins United Methodist Church, the Collins Lions Club and was an honorary member of Father Flanagan's Boys Home.

Survivors include his wife Roberta of Collins, one daughter Sherry Davie of Treynor, three grandchildren, one great-grandchild, two brothers, Ray and Donald Granger, both of Colo, and one sister, Velma Hess of Colo.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one son Stanley Granger and one grandson Shad Davie.

Funeral services will be held March 8 at 1 p.m. at United Methodist Church in Collins with Pastor Penny Hansel officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery in Collins. Visitation will be at Chet Ryan Mortuary, Mar. 7, from noon to 8 p.m. and the family will receive relatives and friends from 6 to 8 p.m. A memorial fund has been established at the Collins Exchange State Bank.
