

<http://www.nevada-iowa-journal.com/site/news.cfm?brd=2033>

August 12, 2004

Roberta Granger

March 19, 1921, to Aug. 4, 2004

Roberta Helena (Sink) Granger, 83, residing in Southwest Iowa, formerly of Collins, Iowa passed away on Wednesday, August 4, 2004 at the Beverly Hallmark Care Center, Omaha, Nebraska. Funeral services were held on Saturday, August 7, 2004 at 1:00 P.M. at Chet Ryan Mortuary in Nevada, Iowa with Pastor Paul Crane officiating. Burial followed services in the Evergreen Cemetery in Collins, Iowa.

Roberta Helena Sink was born on March 19, 1921 in Marshall County to Rober and Helena (Haak) Sink. She lived in Rhodes from 1921-1940. On December 14, 1940 she wed Forrest Dale Granger in Rhodes and they moved to Collins. She delighted in her homemaking. Roberta was a 50 year member of Rhodes Rebekah Lodge #362, IOOF and Collins United Methodist Church. She was an avid quilter and an accomplished seamstress. She also enjoyed going to country festivals and spending time with her family.

Roberta is survived by a daughter, Sherry (Granger) Andersen of Treynor, Iowa; grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her Husband, Forrest D. Granger on March 3, 1991; a son, Stanley Granger; a grandson, Shad Davie; two sisters, Edith and Clara; and two brothers, Morris and Walter.

Memorial contributions may be made to Collins United Methodist Church, Collins, Iowa.

©Nevada Journal 2004