

Grout, Addie Mills
d. 10-29-1931

MRS. ADDIE GROUT IS DEAD

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Addie Grout, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 29, at her home in Blue Earth, Minn. Mrs. Grout, 55, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mills, former Collins residents. During the late eighties and early nineties Mr. and Mrs. Mills and family made their home on a farm three and a half miles east of Collins, now known as the Chris Harrington farm. Mrs. Grout attended the country school at Willow Creek and was a member of the first graduating class from the Collins schools in 1894.

Mrs. Grout has often returned to Collins for reunions of her class.

The family moved to Webster City in 1895 and there Mrs. Grout was united in marriage to Irve E. Grout. Mr. and Mrs. Grout later moved to Blue Earth, Minn., near which place they have made their home on a farm.

Mrs. Grout's death was caused by a complication of diseases, Bright's disease setting in at the last.

She is survived by her husband and four children, a son, Lloyd, who makes his home with the family; three daughters, Mrs. Walter Trout and Mrs. Ankeny Clayton, both of Blue Earth, and Miss Lula Bell, who lives at home. Four grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Blue Earth.

Collins
Gazette
11-05-1931