

Fred Hale

Died 2 Sept. 1983

Services were Tuesday for Fred Hale, 91, of Rhodes, who died Friday morning at Marshalltown Area Community Hospital. The Rev. Frank Schultz officiated at Rhodes United Methodist Church and burial followed in the Eden Cemetery. Wensel - Perrin Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Born October 14, 1891, in Story County, he was the son of Aaron and Mary Hale. He received his education in Story County schools. On July 1, 1914, he was married to Maude Richmond in Marshalltown and they had always made their home in Rhodes.

Mr. Hale was preceded in death by one brother and a grandson. He is survived by his widow and one son, James Hale, both of Rhodes, and one daughter, Kathleen (Mrs. Joe) Malechek of Marshalltown. Also surviving are seven grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and a great great grandchild.