

Obituary.

James Hale was born in Collins August 5, 1905, and died March 17, 1907, aged nineteen months, one week and five days. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hale. His death was a grievous loss to the fond parents, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

The funeral was held at the residence Monday 2 p. m. Rev. C. E. Burton, in a beautiful address, gave comfort and hope to the sorrowing ones. A quartette sang hymns appropriate to the solemn hour.

The interment was at the Evergreen Cemetery. Many sympathizing relatives and friends were present.

The pallbearers were John King, Harold Lingenfelter, Oliver Shearer and John Thompson Jr.

Card of Thanks.

Our heartfelt thanks are given to our neighbors and friends for their sympathy and kind assistance to us during the illness and death of our dear son.

MR. AND MRS. J. E. HALE.

From Reggie Day
by eMail 2002 11 14