

MILTON HALE

Milton Hale, 77, of Collins IA, died Thursday, Jan. 5, 1989, at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames IA. Cause of death was a stroke.

Hale was born on March 5, 1911, in Rhodes IA to Aaron and Jessie Mann Hale. He married Thelma Evans on Aug. 10, 1933, in Garner IA.

He was a retired farmer and also had done some TV repair. He had lived in the Collins area since his marriage in 1933.

He was a member of the United Methodist Church in Collins.

Survivors include: One daughter, Bonnie Horn, of Collins; two sisters, his twin, Mildred Mead of Minneapolis MN, and Florence McDaniels of Melbourne IA, and three grandchildren, Scott, Brent and Kameron Horn of Collins.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Thelma, in 1983; his parents; one brother, Aaron Hale; one half-brother, Robert Johnson, and one half-sister, Ardel Baker.

Funeral services were Monday, Jan. 9, at the United Methodist Church in Collins with Rev. Donald Carlson officiating.

Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery at Collins.

Nevada Journal

d. Jan. 5, 1990