

Dollie Hale

Services were held Thursday at Rhodes United Methodist Church for Dollie (Mrs. James) Hale, 63, of Rhodes who died Sunday evening. The Rev. Frank Schultz officiated and burial followed in Eden Cemetery, Rhodes.

A memorial fund has been established.

Born September 15, 1916, in Waukon, she was married to James Hale on July 19, 1937, in Rhodes and he survives. Also surviving are a son and three daughters, Jerry Hale, Norfolk, VA; Jean Pfantz, State Center; Joan Cardani, Boone, and Vicki Schuler, Melbourne, seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and a sister.

Mrs. Hale was raised and educated in Maynard. Mr. and Mrs. Hale lived in Waterloo for three years following their marriage and moved to Rhodes in 1940. She was employed as a machinist by the Reuben Donnelley Co. in Nevada for 20 years and worked with the Health Aide Service in Story County.

Mrs. Hale was a member of Rhodes United Methodist Church.

Ryan-Davis Funeral Home of Melbourne was in charge of the arrangements.