Hold Funeral Services For Chris Halterman, Aged Maxwell Man

1942

Special to the Journal:

Maxwell, April 9—INS—Funeral services for Chris Halterman, 89, were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the Church of Christ with the pastor, Rev. H. G. Darling in charge.

With Mrs. Arthur Porter at the piano, a mixed quartette sang, "Hide Me," "In the Upper Garden There," and "Does Jesus Care." The casket-bearers were grandsons of the deceased, Leon Halterman, Ervin and Dean Whitney and Loren, Clarence and Ralph Vasey. Mrs. Dan Peters assisted with the flowers which were profuse and very beautiful.

Rev. Darling read in part: Christopher C. Halterman, son of Joseph and Sarah E. Halterman, was born in Warren county, Iowa, June 2, 1852, and passed away Friday, April 3, at the age of 89 years, 10 months and 1 day, in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clara Myers. He was married to Miss Sarah Wright and to this union twin sons were born, Ole and William, who still survive and live in or near Galena, Kansas. In 1882 he was united in marriage to Belle Jones. Surviving him are five other children, Willis, Joe and Mrs. Clara Myers of Maxwell, Della Davis of Clarinda and Minta Whitney of Radcliffe. Preceding him in death were his wife and three children, Mrs. Iva Oyler, Nancy and Cassie. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Emma Dodd of Collins, thirty grandchildren and a number of great grandchildren.

A host of friends and neighbors will miss their friend and countryman. He was a loving father and patient in his declining years of life.
