

d. Sept. 4, 1940

Funeral Services for Mrs. Susan Halterman

Special to the Journal:

1940

Collins, Sept. 11 — Funeral services for the late Mrs. Susan Halterman, 86, who passed away at her home at Collins at 7:30 Wednesday morning, were held from the local Church of Christ Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. Arthur Marston of the U. B. church in charge.

A quartet composed of Mrs. K. W. Tomlinson, Mrs. Geo. Holmes, J. R. Witmer and Tom Huntrods, with Mrs. Hugh Fertig at the piano, sang "Just When I Need Him Most," "No Disappointment in Heaven" and "Face to Face." The flowers which were very beautiful and numerous, were arranged at the church and grave by Mrs. Ora Hanson, Mrs. Clyde Keagle and Mrs. Minnie Hyatt. Interment was in the family lot in Evergreen cemetery.

Pallbearers were William and Gerald Gilley, Vern Halterman, Delmar Halterman and Raymond and Howard Halterman, grandsons of the deceased.

Susan Hall Halterman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hall, was born in Ohio, July 20, 1854, and came with her parents to Palmyra, Warren county, Iowa, when but a small child. She grew to womanhood in that community and was united in marriage to John Halterman.

After several years, the family moved to a farm near Collins. After rearing their family, they moved to Collins and it was here that Mr. Halterman passed away on Jan 8, 1923. Of the children born to this union, the two daughters preceded her in death. Surviving are the four sons, Henry of Nevada, Dennis and Melvin of Collins and John of near Roland. She is also survived by one step-daughter, Mrs. Belle Gilley, and a number of grandchildren, great grandchildren and other more distant relatives.

Mrs. Halterman had lived a long, useful life in this community, having done many kind deeds and making a host of friends who truly regret her passing. For the past seven weeks she had been a patient at the Iowa sanitarium at Nevada, having been taken there following a fall in which she broke her hip.

She was brought to her home in Collins on Tuesday evening and passed quietly away the following morning.

Mrs. Susan Halterman Died Early Today at Home In Collins

1940

Collins, Sept. 4 — Mrs. Susan Halterman, 86, died at her home in Collins at 7:30 a.m. today, after having been brought here on Tuesday from Iowa sanitarium, Nevada, where she had been since July 11, following a fall in which she had fractured a hip.

Mrs. Halterman who had lived in the Collins neighborhood during her entire married life, was recognized as one of the respected pioneer women of the community.

Born in Ohio, July 20, 1854, she came as a small child with her parents to Palmyra, in Warren county, and there she grew to young womanhood and was married to John Halterman. Two daughters died in infancy and she is survived by sons Henry of Nevada, Bennis and Melvin of Collins and John of near Roland. There is also a stepdaughter Mrs. Belle Gillie of Collins.

Mr. Halterman farmed for many years but retired probably about 25 years ago and passed away in 1923.

Mrs. Susan Halterman, 86, passed away at her home in Collins Wednesday morning at 7:30. She had been brought home on Tuesday from the Iowa sanitarium at Nevada, where she had been a patient since July 11, following a fall in which she sustained a fractured hip.

Mrs. Halterman had lived in the Collins community during her entire married life, and her passing removes another of our highly respected pioneers.

Born in Ohio, July 20, 1854, she came as a small child with her parents to Palmyra in Warren county, where she grew to womanhood and was married to John Halterman.

Of the children born to this union, two daughters preceded her in death. Surviving are four sons, Henry of Nevada, Dennis and Melvin of Collins and John of near Roland. She also is survived by a step-daughter, Mrs. Belle Gilley of Collins.

Mr. Halterman passed away in 1923.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at the Collins Church of Christ.

Nevada Evening Journal

Collins Gazette

9-5-40