

Carolyn Secor

Sept 5, 1980

Mrs. William (Carolyn) Secor, 58, RR 5, Fort Dodge, died August 22, 1980 following a heart attack. Services were on Monday August 25 at the United Church of Christ in Fort Dodge. Burial was in North Lawn Cemetery.

Survivors include her husband William, daughters Dr. Janet E. Secor, York, PA; Suzanne E. Secor, Des Moines and Mrs. Carroll (Barbara) Hanson, Iowa City; one son, William S. Secor Jr. at home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hammerly of Newton, three sisters, one brother and one grandson.

Carolyn Hammerly Secor was born August 14, 1922, near Newton, graduating from High School there in 1939. She graduated from William Penn College, Oskaloosa, in 1944 and taught at Montour until her marriage in 1946.

Carolyn Secor's interests were many. She was selected as Iowa Master Farm Homemaker in 1972 by Wallace Farmer Magazine. She had played viola with the Fort Dodge symphony orchestra for 14 years. She served in numerous 4-H and Farm Bureau positions.

The Secors opened their home to farm trainees from Japan and Brazil for many years and also have been hosts to many visitors from abroad in cooperation with the U.S. State Department.
