

Hampton, R. R. d. March 1941

Death of R. R. Hampton

Collins people were saddened to hear of the death of R. R. Hampton, 70, of Baxter, who spent much of his boyhood in and near Collins.

Funeral services were held March 10 in the Congregational church at Baxter and interment in the Baxter cemetery.

Mr. Hampton was a son of the late Riley and Sarah Hampton, who were pioneer residents of Collins, and he was well known to the older residents of this community.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Fern Morris of Keota, and one grandchild. A daughter, Esther, preceded her father in death about five weeks ago. Three sisters and two brothers and a number of more distant relatives also survive.
