

December 05, 2001

Ruth Fitzgerald

Died Nov. 26, 2001

Ruth Fitzgerald, 58, of Florida, died Monday, Nov. 26.

She was born in Knoxville and had lived in Des Moines and Annadale, Va., before moving to Gainesville, Fla., 17 years ago. She was a member of the Holy Faith and Queen of Peace Catholic Churches in Gainesville. She was an active member of the Gainesville business community, while working at Sante Fe Community College, the House of Travel, the Health Science Center Library at the University of Florida and as a self-employed financial planner. She founded the Gainesville Area Investment Network, served as president of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and was a member of the Gainesville Area Women's Network.

Survivors include her husband of 39 years Patrick G. Fitzgerald, originally of Collins; two daughters, Lisa (and Roger) Jap-Tjong of Tampa, Fla., and Laura (and Brian) Holloway of Williamsburg, Va.; a son, P.J. Fitzgerald of Grover Beach, Calif., one grandson; and two brothers, Ted Lowe of Des Moines and Don Hanika of Seattle, Wash. She also is survived by a number of extended family members in the Story County area.

Mass of Christian Burial was held Friday, Nov. 30. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association or Catholic Charities.

©Nevada Journal 2001

Ruth Fitzgerald

Died Nov. 26, 2001

Ruth Fitzgerald, 58, of Florida, died Monday, Nov. 26.

She was born in Knoxville and had lived in Des Moines and Annadale, Va., before moving to Gainesville, Fla., 17 years ago. She was a member of the Holy Faith and Queen of Peace Catholic Churches in Gainesville. She was an active member of the Gainesville business community, while working at Sante Fe Community College, the House of Travel, the Health Science Center Library at the University of Florida and as a self-employed financial planner. She founded the Gainesville Area Investment Network, served as president of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and was a member of the Gainesville Area Women's Network.

Survivors include her husband of 39 years Patrick G. Fitzgerald, originally of Collins; two daughters, Lisa (and Roger) Jap-Tjong of Tampa, Fla., and Laura (and Brian) Holloway of Williamsburg, Va.; a son, P.J. Fitzgerald of Grover Beach, Calif., one grandson; and two brothers, Ted Lowe of Des Moines and Don Hanika of Seattle, Wash. She also is survived by a number of extended family members in the Story County area.

Mass of Christian Burial was held Friday, Nov. 30. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association or Catholic Charities.

d. 11-26-2001

Nevada
Journal
12-6-200