

Harding, Loretta

d. 6-29-1931 MRS. Harry

MRS. HARRY HARDING

PASSED AWAY MONDAY

Mrs. Harry Harding died at her home in Colo Monday morning at 1:00 a. m., after an illness which covered a period of 15 months, having been bedfast during that time.

Mrs. Harding, whose maiden name was Loretta Reynolds, was a daughter of John and Susan Reynolds, pioneers of southeast of Colo. where she was born January 12, 1886. She attended the Colo schools, and later took a special course in music under Prof. Adamson at St. Mary's institute at Marshalltown.

She was united in marriage to Harry Harding, December 31, 1921, who with a number of brothers and sisters survive her.

The father died in 1903 and the mother in 1925. Brothers John and George also preceded her in death.

She leaves besides her husband, her brother James and sister Anna Reynolds of Colo, a brother Ed Reynolds and sisters Mrs. Mary Ernst and Mrs. Eva Haas of Chicago, and a brother, Frank Reynolds of Ranier, Ore.

Funeral services were held from St. Mary's church at Colo, Wednesday morning, at 9:00 a. m., with her pastor, Father M. Nichols, in charge.
