He was baptised in the church of England when a child and always held to this faith thru life. He was also a member of the Mystic Workers of the World

His death came as a great shock to the community, being sick only a few days.

Farewell dear father, sweet thy rest,
Weary with years and worn with pain,
Farewell, till in some happy place
We shall behold thy face again.
Tis ours to miss thee all our years,
And tender memories of thee keep
Thine in the Lord to rest, for so,
He giveth His beloved sleep.

The funeral services were conducted at the Christian church at 1 p. m. by C. R. Moore and the body was laid At Rest in the Collins cemetery.

The pall bearers were John J. John, Earnest Clark, Alva Pritchard, Roscoe Pritchard, Squire McConnell and Andrew Pinck
