

Alta Kimberley

Aug. 17, 1923, to Sept. 15, 1993

Alta Harris Kimberley, 70, of Collins died of kidney failure at Mercy Medical Center in Des Moines.

She was born in rural Jasper County to Glen Arthur and Mable (Longfellow) Harris. She married James Kimberley on Nov. 21, 1942, in Nashua at the Little Brown Church. She was a lifelong resident of the Collins area, a homemaker and school teacher. She was a member of the Collins United Methodist Church, Eastern Star and the Peoria Cemetery Association. She attended Iowa State University and Drake University.

Survivors include three daughters, Nancy Smith and Jean Nielsen, both of Chicago, Ill., and Kerry Funke of Norwalk; one sister, Lee Johnson of Long Beach, Calif., and five grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James, in February of this year, and her parents.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Collins United Methodist Church with the Rev. Penny Hansel officiating. Burial followed in Peoria Cemetery, Maxwell. Cooper Funeral Home, Maxwell, handled arrangements.
