Dale E. Hartwig

Nov. 28, 1920, to July 8, 2003

Dale E. Hartwig, 82, of State Center, died Tuesday evening, July 8, at the State Center Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

He was born Nov. 28, 1920, in Story County on the family farm, to Elmer and Marie (Griener) Hartwig. He was raised and educated in the area of his birth, attending the St. John Parochial School and later graduated from Colo High School in 1938. He then began farming with his father and later took over the family farm and farmed until he was 65. While farming he was a DeKalb Seedcorn salesman. On Feb. 15, 1945, he married Geraldine Wolken at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Marshalltown. He enjoyed his family and especially enjoyed picking out 4-H cattle for his children and grandchildren. He also enjoyed playing the piano, playing cards and was a great Cyclone fan. He was a member of the St. John's Lutheran Church, of which he has served as treasurer on the church board, secretary of the Colo Cooperative, raised feeder cattle and was a former member of the Story County Zoning Board.

Survivors include his wife, Geraldine; two children, Maria Donald of Chariton and Dean (and Anna) Hartwig of Colo; five grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday, July 11, at St. John's Lutheran Church in rural State Center with Pastor David Steege officiating. Burial followed at Hillside Cemetery,

State Center. Memorials may be directed to the St. John's Lutheran Church in his name. Wensel Perrin Funeral Home, State Center, handled arrangements.
