Herbert Howard Hauser was born on December 24, 1911 in Whitten, Iowa, the son of Lloyd L. and Mary Mabie Hauser. He was raised and educated in the Whitten area, graduating from the Whitten Consolidated Schools with the class of 1929. Herb was united in marriage to Agnes Johnson on July 23, 1937 in Roland, Iowa, to which union were born sons Gary and Steven. He worked in his father's general store until beginning employment as a mechanic at his uncle Howard Hauser's implement store in Whitten in 1933. In 1959 he acquired the business, where he was owner/operator until 1978 when he sold the business to his son Gary, continuing to work there until December of 2004. From 1950 until 1992 Herb was a familiar figure at people's homes as he serviced their TV's in the evenings. One of his fond memories was shooting his age at 78 at the Shalimar Golf Course. He served on the school board of the Whitten Consolidated Schools and was active in community service. Herb is survived by his wife: Agnes Hauser of Union, two sons: Gary (Annamaria) Hauser of Union and Steven Hauser of Iowa City; brother: Laurence Hauser of Geneva, Illinois; two grandchildren: Sylvia Hauser of Oak Park, Illinois and Lisa (Randy) Duncan of Indio, California; and two great-grandchildren: Paden and Ella Duncan. He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother and one sister.
