

HAY, JOHN OLIVER

D. MAY 25, 1938

Pioneer Died on Old Homestead 1938 Where He Was Born

Maxwell, May 27—John Oliver Hay, 80, one of the pioneers of this part of the county, died at the old Hay homestead south of Collins where he was born, this morning at 3:30.

Funeral services will be in the Cooper Funeral chapel here Sunday afternoon at 1:00.

The deceased was survived by his brother, William T. Hay who lived with him on the old homestead, and a sister, Mrs. Emma T. Viers of Iowa City.

He also leaves three neices, Mrs. Freda B. Denniston of Los Angeles, who was at his bedside at death; Mrs. Vera Ormand of Iowa City and Mrs. Pauline Hintz of Kiester, Minn., and one nephew, Paul E. Viers of Iowa Falls.

Nevada Evening Journal