

Charles Andy Hayne

24 NOV 1980

Charles Andy Hayne, Rhodes, died in a one vehicle accident on Monday, Nov 24. The accident occurred near State Center on a gravel road. According to the sheriff's report, the Hayne auto struck a concrete bridge head-on.

Hayne 84, was born on Sept 22, 1896, at Kingsley. He was the son of David and Ima Baie Hayne and grew up in the Marshall County area, receiving his education in the State Center school.

He served in the army during World War I and later married Anelaid Andrews, who preceded him in death in 1949.

Hayne later married Leora Stier Harrand on Jan. 28, 1952. They made their home in the State Center and Rhodes areas.

She preceded him in death earlier this year.

He is survived by a son, Charles A. Hayne, Jr., State Center, and a step-son, Leon Harrand, and four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday (today) at the Rhodes Methodist church with the Rev. Frank Schultz officiating.

Burial will follow at the Hillside Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Ronald Kelling, Fred Cheville, Paul Phillips, Charles Thomas, Willard Thursby and Clarence Andrews.

Honorary pallbearers include Kenneth Clement, Howard Buck and Ralph Andrews.
