

Heintz, Albert C. d. 9-17-1942

Funeral services for the late Albert C. Heintz, who died suddenly from a heart attack at his home in Collins on last Thursday afternoon, were held at the Methodist church, Saturday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Lloyd Patton of the local Church of Christ in charge of services. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. K. W. Tomlinson, Miss Calla Wood, E. S. Stuntz and Milton Hale, with Mrs. C. R. Stone at the piano. The quartet sang "Does Jesus Care?" and "Going Down the Valley" and Mrs. Tomlinson sang as a solo, "I Know Not How Soon God Will Call Me."

The flowers were arranged by Mrs. Ora Hanson and Mrs. O. N. Serbein.

Interment was in Evergreen cemetery at Collins, with Henry Dodd, Dewey Kern, W. R. Rumbaugh, Harold Kimberley, Glen Pointer and Kenneth Tomlinson of the local Masonic lodge acting as pallbearers.

The burial service of the Masonic order was in charge of the Rhodes Masonic lodge with W. H. Bollenbacher of Melbourne giving the ritualistic work.

The following brief sketch of the life of deceased was read by the minister:

Albert Carl Heintz, youngest child of the late Adolph and Mary Heintz, was born on the Heintz homestead, northeast of Collins, on December 14, 1873, and departed this life from his home in Collins, Thursday afternoon, September 17, 1942, at the age of 68 years, 9 months, and 4 days.

Collins community, and was married to Elizabeth Ann Huntrods June 26, 1918. They made their home in Collins, and it was here that Mrs. Heintz passed away on January 24, 1921. Since that time Mr. Heintz lived in the home alone.

He was the last member of this pioneer family, and his nearest surviving relatives are his four nephews and three nieces, children of the late W. C. Heintz. He leaves a number of more distant relatives and a host of friends, all of whom sincerely mourn his passing.

For many years Mr. Heintz was an active member of the Rhodes Masonic lodge, and retained his membership in the Odd Fellow lodge, although the local lodge has not functioned for a number of years.

Mr. Heintz was a respected citizen of this community, a good neighbor, and a kind friend. He will be missed by all who knew him.

HEINTZ, Albert C.

d. 17 Sept. 1942

ALBERT C. HEINTZ

Albert C. Heintz, 68, a native son of Collins community, died at his home Thursday afternoon of a heart attack. While Mr. Heintz had not been well for some time he had been up and around the house and the sudden fatal attack came as a great surprise to the community.

Mr. Heintz was born on a farm near Collins, December 14, 1873, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Heintz, pioneers of the neighborhood and died as the last of the family.

He grew to manhood in the community and it was there that he was married to Miss Elizabeth Ann Huntrods, June 26, 1918. Mrs. Heintz died June 24, 1921, and he had since lived alone in the home in Collins.

He is survived only by four nephews and three nieces, children of his brother, the late W. C. Heintz.

Ames Milepost

ALBERT C. HEINTZ

Funeral services for the late Albert C. Heintz, 68, who died suddenly from a heart attack at his home in Collins on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. Lloyd Patton of the Methodist church, Saturday afternoon, with the Rev. Lloyd Patton of the local Church of Christ in charge of services. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery at Collins, in charge of the Rhodes Masonic lodge.

Albert Carl Heintz was the youngest child of the late Adolph and Mary Heintz, and was born on the Heintz homestead northeast of Collins on December 14, 1873. He grew to manhood in that community and was married to Elizabeth Ann Huntrods on June 26, 1918.

They made their home in Collins and it was there the wife died, January 24, 1921. Since that time the deceased had lived in the home alone. He was the last member of this pioneer family and is survived only by his four nephews and three nieces, children of the late W. C. Heintz.

For many years the deceased was an active member of the Rhodes Masonic Lodge, and has retained his membership in the Odd Fellows Lodge although the local order ceased to function a number of years ago.

Collins
Gazette
9-24-1942