Sarah Ann was the youngest child in the family of eight children of Evelyn and Henry Henson. She was born in ~~Tennessee~~ <sup>Kentucky</sup>, November 12, 1863, and departed this life January 30, 1948, aged 84 years, 2 months and 19 days.

Her parents died when she was quite small and she was reared in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hembrough. Early in life she accepted Christ and decided to follow the path of her Master, and was a faithful church member until her death.

On August 30, 1883, she united in marriage to William V. Huntrods near Jacksonville, Ill. To this union six children were born: Elizabeth, Jessie, Thomas, Myra, John, and Simpson. Elizabeth and Jessie, along with the husband, preceded her in death.

She and her husband, with two small children, moved to Collins 60 years ago, where she continued to make her home the greater part of her life.

She was united with the Methodist Protestant church a number of years ago, and later transferred her membership to the Evangelical United Brethren church, where she was a faithful worker until ill health forced her to relinquish her duties.

She leaves to mourn her passing, one daughter, three sons, 17 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren, as well as many, many, friends.
