

The Des Moines Register DM
Saturday, February 15, 2003

CAROLYN REPP

Monroe

Carolyn Repp, 49, of Monroe died of cancer Wednesday at home. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. today at Schmidt Funeral Home in Centerville, with burial at Union Chapel Cemetery near Albia.

Ms. Repp was born in Des Moines and had lived in Monroe and Centerville before returning to Monroe. She had worked in quality control with Well's Manufacturing in Centerville and was active with Alcoholics Anonymous there.

She is survived by a son, Jeff Hill of Ottumwa; two daughters, Julie Vander Vorst of Altoona and Jessica Nelson Cunningham of Kellogg; her mother, Fay Moore of Pella; five brothers, Orville Moore of Otley, Dennis Moore of Monroe, Brian Hunt and Brad Hunt, both of Lovilia, and Kevin Hunt of Oskaloosa; seven sisters, Doris Abbott of Las Vegas, Elsie Foster of Monroe, Evelyn Verburg of Pella, Lori Rote and Mindy Repp, both of Grand Junction, Connie Repp of Colorado and Pauline Repp of Albia; and four grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Carolyn Repp Memorial Fund.