

The Rhodes Rocket

Vol. 2 No 9

September 1, 2002

IN REMEMBRANCE

Marvin W. Hilleman, 90, of 378 27th Ave. S. W. Cedar Rapids, died Aug. 5, in Mercy Hallmar following a short illness. Services were held at the Turner East Funeral Home & Crematory. Burial was at the Eden Cemetery, Rhodes. The Rev. Ed Powers officiated.

Survivors include his wife Adah, children, Karen Brandt (John) of Cedar Rapids, John Hilleman (Janet) of Slater, and Connie Benson (Don) of Burnsville, Minn., a sister Bessie Conkin of State Center; four grandchildren, Jim and Jeff Hilleman of Ames, Melissa Laiming of Austin, Texas, and Stephainie Winslow of Lawrence, Kan.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Bernice Nichols. Marvin was born May 12, 1912 in State Center, the son of Milt Hilleman and Ida (Johnson) Hilleman. He married Adah Snowgren on June 26, 1937 in Rhodes. Marvin was a lineman and foreman for Alliant Energy for 40 years. He was a member of Marshalltown Methodist Church and past master of his Masonic Lodge. He enjoyed sports and bowling.

Our deepest sympathy to the rest of his friends and family.