George V. Hix Dies Of Cancer; Services Friday

RHODES — (Special)—George V. Hix died at 2:10 p.m. Wednesday at Evangelical Hospital in Marshalltown. Death was of cancer.

Mr. Hix was born at Zearing July 17, 1894, the son of the late W. D. and Emily Hix. In 1908 the family came to Rhodes where he had lived since, making this home with his brother, Luther, for the last few years.

In addition to the brother, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ray Lightfoot of Zearing.

The body is at the Boyd-Nickell funeral home in Baxter and will be taken to the Methodist Church at 11 a.m. Friday where services will be held at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Eden Cemetery.
