

A mes Tribune
5-27-2008

Debra Ann Holdren

Debra Ann Holdren, 56, of Maxwell, died Thursday, May 22, at Story County Medical Center in Nevada, Iowa.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 27, at St. Mary's Church in Elkhart with Father Bob Harris officiating. Visitation was from 4 to 7 p.m. Monday, May 26, at Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell. A wake service followed visitation.

Debra was born Aug. 22, 1951, in Carroll, to Edgar and Alita (Reinhart) Snyder. She graduated from St. Bernard's High School in Breda in 1969, and the University of Iowa in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in Spanish. She married Randy Holdren June 19, 1976, in Breda. She was a homemaker, a bank clerk for Bankers Trust, and she worked for Donnelley Marketing. She retired in 2006.

She was a member of St. Mary's Church in Elkhart, where she was a member of the Rosary Society, and the Collins-Maxwell Booster Club. She enjoyed reading, Word Jumbles and following her children's sporting events. She loved her kids and "waking up in the morning!"

She is survived by her husband, Randy, of Maxwell; two sons, Christopher Holdren, serving in the Coast Guard, and Michael Holdren, of Pleasant Hill; one daughter, Becca Holdren, of Maxwell; her parents, Edgar and Alita Snyder, of Breda; five brothers, Joe (Marilyn) Snyder, of Lawrence, Kan., Ron (Pat) Snyder, of Oakland, Calif., Jim (Nancy) Snyder, of Wichita, Kan., Tim (Kathi) Snyder, of Breda, and Marty (Carol) Snyder, of Breda; and one sister, Ann (Russ) Polking, of Newton.

Memorials may be made to the Debra Holdren Memorial Fund.

Bacon Funeral Home of Maxwell is in charge of arrangements.

Holdren, Debra A. d. 5-22-2008