Richard D. Holland was born Feb. 9, 1923 at Collins to Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Holland. His life was spent at farming and as an agent for Standard Oil Co.

He was married to Dorothy E. Titus on Dec. 12, 1947 and was a member of the Methodist Church, Masonic Lodge, American Legion and a former member of the Collins High School Board of Education.

He is survived by his father Loyd, his wife Dorothy, two sons, Dennis with the U.S. Navy in Virginia and Roger at home, two daughters, Marcia and Gail at home, and two brothers, Gordon of Collins and Philip of Iowa City.

The Holland crash, as described by Patrolman Bill Pasut, was on Highway 65. The Hollands were headed for Des Moines. In the car were Loyd Holland, 72; his wife, Blanche, 71, their son, Richard 48; Gail Holland, 12, and Christy Dunshiee 12.

According to Pasut, a semi-trailer, driven by Marls Peterson, 40, Black River Falls, Wis., jackknifed after striking the back of a car driven by Tom Iseminger, 47, Bondurant. Iseminger had stopped in the northbound lane of 65 to make a left turn onto Highway 338.

The Holland car swerved to avoid the jackknifed semi and slammed into a concrete bridge abutment.

The girls were treated at the hospital and released. Mrs. Holland and Richard were dead on arrival at Broadlawns Hospital.

The elder Holland, his right leg crushed in the crash, was in serious condition at Mercy Hospital where he underwent surgery Thursday to pin the leg.
