Jean Holroyd, 87, of Vancouver, Washington, formerly of Albion, died Tuesday, March 25, 2003 at Adventist Medical Center in Portland, Oregon. GRAVESIDE FUNERAL SERVICES will be held at 1:30 P.M., on Friday, April 04, 2003, at Rose Hill Memorial Gardens with Rev. Jerry Swanberg, First United Methodist Church, officiating. There is no scheduled visitation. MEMORIALS may be directed to the First United Methodist Church or the Clark County, Washington Historical Museum.

Jean Glasgow Holroyd was born on December 04, 1915 in Albion, Iowa, the daughter of Donald Newport & Edith Alice (Rownd) Holroyd. She was raised and grew up in the Albion area where she graduated from the Albion High School with the class of 1933. Following graduation she attained her teaching certificate from the (UNI) Iowa State Teacher's College in 1934. After teaching for several years in Marshall County, she moved to Vancouver, Washington in 1944 to continue her teaching career. Intending only to stay for two years, she liked Vancouver so much, that she decided to stay permanently. Following retirement from the Shumway Junior High in the mid 1960's, Jean worked for many years at the Clark County Historical Museum as an assistant curator & volunteer. She traveled extensively world-wide and greatly enjoyed sharing her experiences with her family, students and friends. She actively pursued many hobbies including: gardening, camping, skiing, photography, bird watching and knitting. Jean lived a full life & will be missed. She has been an active member of the following organizations: First United Methodist Church, Wesleyan Guild, Clark County Historical Society, Audubon Society, Women's Athenaeum club, American Association of University Women, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, New Century Club, Business & Professional Women, Retired Teacher's Association, Girl Scouts of America (leader) and the Clark County Genealogy Society. Jean is survived by her brother: John & wife Doris Holroyd, Marshalltown, Iowa; a sister: Margaret Robertson, San Francisco, California; a niece: Nancy Markert, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; three nephews: David Holroyd, Columbia, South America, Donald Robertson, San Francisco, California & Bruce Robertson, Reno, Nevada; three grand nephews and grand niece. She was preceded in death by her parents.
